DR. M'LANE'S
CELEBRATED
VERMIFUGE
AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE, For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS, For the cure of Liver Complaints, all Bilious Distempers, SICK HEAD-Ache, &c. In cases of FEVER AND AGUE, preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivalled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their Undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS., Pittsburg, Pa.

P. S. Doctor and Physician, we trust you will do well to write their orders to us, and we will be pleased to forward them to you. To those wishing to give them to their Physician, we will forward the same, by mail, to any Physician of the United States, one box of Two for twelve dollars, and two boxes for twenty-four dollars, postage paid.

These cockneys saw nothing their optics could hit on.

But what was insipid, or miserably puny,

to the English, our horses were called.

An Ox but calf, and a Sheep but Lamb;

And for the people—poor pitiful doots;

More Hottentots' children contrived with them.

Smith.

Smith (as if with sudden remembrance) he said, "I have heard of you, but I don't know you, but I will be glad to see you."

He also said, "I have been to see him."

"What, do you wish to see him?" asked

"Smith."

"I have a bill against him (producing it) for $20, left by Dr. A. who, you remember, recently died, and his account have been placed in my hands for collection."

Dr. A. was a physician, and was reported reporting his own name slowly, as if he had a mysterious familiar sound and he were endeavouring to recall it. "I have heard that name before, surely," James H. Smith—James H. Smith—Oh yes! (as if with sudden remembrance) he said, "I have heard of you, but I will be glad to see you."

He also said, "I have been to see him, but he is dead, certainly he is dead."

I remonstrated with him, but he said, "I remonstrated with him, but he is dead, certainly he is dead."

"Did anything happen to him?" asked the collector.

"Yes." He died suddenly one morning, of a stroke, after attending the sick bed of a friend.

"Did he leave anything?" asked the man of bills.

"Oh, no. The boy had to buy him a coat."

"I gave $5 myself to help in putting the deceased creature under the sod." He died penitent.

Then there is no use of keeping this bill, I suppose!"

"None at all," said S. And as the collector departed, he continued, to himself, "I guess I've got rid of that old boy. It wasn't perhaps, much of a story I was telling. I remonstrated with him, but he is dead, certainly he is dead."

Probably I was only anticipating a little after all—except in the $5 contribution,

"Did anything happen to him?" asked the collector.
